

System Format

The TWM System is broken down into three major modules for ease of operation.

Maintenance Module

- Where all Waste Types, Disposal Locations, Transporters, and Companies are setup.

Service Module

- Where all transactional data is inputted including waste services, internal transfers and receptacle stock levels

Reporting Module

- Where all transactional data is available to be retrieved in a range of reporting styles.