

Waste Tracking

Many environmental jurisdictions require a special waste tracking number to be assigned to a shipment of waste. The TWM® System allows either a pre-configured pattern of waste tracking numbers, or free-form entry of the required number. Special waste tracking reports exist in the system for currently regulated jurisdictions and our development teams are able to add new reports as required to cope with the requirements of additional jurisdictions.